RED X BOOSTER WEEK

$10,000 RED CROSS DRIVE STARTS IN GLENDALE MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5

The committee in charge of this great drive is: Ezra F. Parker, Calvin Whiting, G. H. Bentley, H. W. Chase, Ed M. Lee, M. P. Harrison, F. H. Vesper, L. W. Bosserman, Roy W. Kent and C. O. Pulliam. The names of the four assistants for each of the above committeemen will be published in the Evening News Monday afternoon. There will be a get-together dinner of the committeemen and their assistants in the banquet hall of the Methodist church Monday evening at 6:15 o'clock. Plates, 75 cents. Persons not members of the committee may make reservations for the dinner by phoning Roy L. Kent, Glendale 408, before 12 o'clock noon Monday. This get-together banquet will be featured with intense enthusiasm.

Your attention is called to the statement of workers on Page 2 of this issue.

DINNER PARTY

An unusually happy dinner party was given on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Adams, at 226 Arden avenue. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lord and family, all of South Pasadena. The whole house was trimmed in Halloween colors and effects, marigolds furnishing beautiful floral decorations. After the dinner Halloween games were enjoyed by all, Master Billy Lord, four years old, winning the distinction of gaining a prize for pinning on the black cat's tail. Much fun and merriment was afforded by the various contests in bobbing for apples, the amusing task of eating the strings which lead to the coveted raisins at the other end and in toasting marshmallows before the log fire in the fireplace.

THE T. I. C. ENTERTAIN

The girls of the T. I. C., Miss Bessie Field's class at the Presbyterian Sunday school, were hostesses at a party on Friday evening at the church for the boys of Mrs. John Camphouse's class, who had previously entertained the T. I. C. Mr. Camphouse was unable to be present, but Mr. James Cooper, a former teacher of this same class, took his place. The evening was spent very happily with Halloween games, with the various interesting contests of the season. Appropriate decorations were effectively used and exceedingly good refreshments of doughnuts, apples, marshmallows and punch regaled the young people. Clever little favors of goblin faces used as pins were given to each of the guests. The pleasure of the evening was completed with music and singing.

RED CROSS WAR RELIEF AND RECREATION SECTION

A meeting of the Red Cross War Relief and Recreation Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at "Ard-Eevin," the home of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, the curator. About 20 ladies were present, five new members having been secured. The morning session was spent in knitting and in sewing hospital garments. After the delightful lunch, which was served cafeteria style out under the pepper trees, the business of the day was taken up. Mrs. Campbell speaking on several subjects concerning work the section is to accomplish. She recommended the support of all members in the work of the Yuletide committee, and talked of the part to be taken by this section in the Red Cross bazar which is soon to be given. This section will conduct a booth of home cooked foods which will appear under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. The committee in charge will be: Mesdames A. M. Hunt, V. Price Brown, George Mitchell and Charles H. Temple. Mrs. Campbell urged the signing of the food pledge by all, and closed with a very beautiful personal appeal to each member to seek divine guidance in the work that all are seeking to do.

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR SOLDIERS

The honor roll of the Yuletide remembrance for our soldier and sailor boys is not growing as rapidly as the committee had hoped. The idea is to have money for this purpose given voluntarily, just as one would give to a friend or near relative. Why not let the friend or near relative who will have the comforts of home this Christmas do without the gift and send instead to our boys in camp or fighting for us in France?

COMMUNITY SINGING

MANY OF BILLY SUNDAY CHOIR WILL BE IN POPULAR CHORUS TONIGHT

(By Walt Le Noir Church.)

It is significant that so many well known public personages have approved and emphatically commended the community singing of Glendale. Among them are City Manager Watson, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, representing the Methodists; Rev. E. H. Willisford, on behalf of the Congregationalists; Dr. Pfeiffer, for the New Thought church; Mrs. Charles H. Toll, president of Glendale school board of trustees; Mr. Oaker Von Oven, secretary of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Abramson, of the Tuesday Club, Los Angeles, particularly engaged in promoting community singing among our soldier boys in camp. With such testimony as this, there can be no doubt that Glendale's community singing is well worth while.

Tonight there will likely be with us at the Glendale high school quite a number of the Billy Sunday Tabernacle singers, particularly since it was there decided that the real folk songs are the evangelical songs, many of which will be practiced at our community singing. Why not bring your own books—you that have them? The singers are already too many for the supply of high school song books.

Come early, by 7:30, to practice, led by Mr. Spencer Robinson.

WHAT ONE S. D. FARMER'S WIFE DID FOR THE RED CROSS

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Van Alstine, of 1447 Riverdale Drive, have received an interesting account of a dinner given for the benefit of the Red Cross by old friends in their home town, Mitchell, South Dakota. The description of this extraordinary affair shows what one woman can do for a good cause when she sets out to do it, and follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kotrba, at their home, Beulah Heights, on Tuesday afternoon, served 125 dinners, of which tender and toothsome Davison county chicken was the chief ingredient. Mr. and Mrs. Kotrba have turned every dollar of the sum realized, $125, into the Davison county chapter of the Red Cross Society as their gift to the United States in this time of stress.

There was a vast amount of work and expense, in addition to the gift of the fowl, all of which, together with the efforts and time of people who assisted in the serving. It was an undertaking which many people would hardly care to think of, but Mr. and Mrs. Kotrba had faith in its possibilities and the public showed its appreciation of an opportunity to indulge freely in first class home-cooked food and the patronage was very generous.

Mrs. Kotrba began at 3 o'clock in the morning of Tuesday cooking the foods which made up the feast. She fried 60 pounds of chicken, made 150 individual pumpkin pies, 300 rolls, boiled and mashed three bushels of potatoes, made five gallons of cottage cheese, prepared five gallons of hubbard squash, made 125 plates of combination salad, with a red cross carved from blood beet, as a dressing, prepared 100 crystallized apples, and in the achieving of this task used five gallons of cream and eight pounds of butter, while for the coffee which was consumed five pounds of the coffee berry was used.

Three large tables, seating 45 people at a time, were necessary that the people might gather around the bounteous board, and in the center of each table was a Red Cross 18 inches in width, formed of red geraniums, which were presented to Mrs. Kotrba by Mesdames George Rew, W. A. Heimberger, J. D. Anderson, W. R. Ball and Ellen Gregory. The guests were on hand promptly, and the first dinner was served at 5 p. m., the hostess being assisted by a dozen volunteers.

Possibly in the history of South Dakota no event so unique as this Liberty dinner has occurred, and it is strictly in accordance with the enterprise and excellence of Mr. and Mrs. Kotrba as citizens and neighbors that it was successfully given.

Speaking of the dinner, one man remarked that it outmothered the dinners his mother used to provide; that it was cooked to appease a healthy appetite and not to sit and look at. That it was an all-satisfying and rare feast that he would give a dollar for at any time. The Red Cross people more than appreciate the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Kotrba, and so will every American soldier who receives Red Cross comforts while away from home.

PRESENT FLAGS

TROPICO THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB RECEIVES FLAG FROM LOYAL LEAGUE

The Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club held a very interesting meeting November 1 at the home of Mrs. S. E. Brown. The efficient president, Mrs. Wesley Bullis, introduced Miss Adda Burch, who gave an address on Porto Rico. The speaker spent several months there, and gave an instructive and entertaining talk on the natives and customs. Reminiscences of the Civil war was the subject of a stirring address by Capt. Phelps, vice chairman of the Loyal League of California and past assistant adjutant general, department of New York, G. A. R., also captain of Gen. Grant's Scouts. Capt. Phelps presented, as a gift from the Loyal League, a service flag to the Thursday Afternoon Club, stars to be placed on it for each person serving in the war belonging to the family of a club member. And then in touching words, in the name of the Thursday Afternoon Club, he presented to each of the following members a service flag: Mesdames E. J. Tholen, H. E. Frey, Ryerson, Hal Davenport, and Ella Richardson, the last named having two stars on her flag.

Mrs. Clarkson, widow of Major Clarkson, former commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, gave a splendid talk on patriotism and the war. The program closed with the union singing of "America."

The hostesses of the afternoon were Mesdames Hal Davenport, Charles A. Barker, Thomas Gaiter and S. E. Brown.

MRS. McCREA SPEAKS ON CHINA

Members of Gen. Richard Gridley Chapter, D. A. R., enjoyed an unusually happy meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of their regent, Mrs. Mary H. Gridley-Braly, 205 North Brand boulevard, when Mrs. T. F. McCrea, recently from China, gave an address. The rooms were decorated with golden marigolds and yellow chrysanthemums, and as usual, gracious hospitality radiated from every nook and corner of the Braly home. The members had been invited to bring guests with them, and in all about 35 ladies listened to Mrs. McCrea's talk, which was very instructive and given in a very charming way. A large number of interesting curios were used to illustrate the address. Mrs. McCrea spoke especially of her life as the wife of a missionary in China. A social hour was enjoyed, following the program of the afternoon, and lovely refreshments were served. Mrs. Vernon H. Cowsert, sister of Mrs. McCrea, was a special guest.

DINNER FOR B. R. L'S

The B. A. Chapter of the P. E. O. gave a dinner on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie, 523 West Ninth street, for the husbands, who are members of the B. R. L. The dinner, which was delightfully served in cafeteria style, was a "wienie" dinner, and was greatly enjoyed by the 22 merry hostesses and guests. Afterwards progressive games were played at tables, and the first prize was won by Mr. A. D. Cross. Later, Halloween games acorded much amusement, and Dr. Frank Arnold was initiated into the B. R. L., as he was the only one not present at the big initiation last year. His plight furnished much entertainment for the others, who had much fun at his expense. The evening ended in music and dancing. The house was beautifully decorated, chrysanthemums being the flower used, and pretty autumn effects predominating.

ITALIAN DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman, of 1416 West First street, entertained with an Italian dinner on Halloween in honor of Mr. Guiseppi Phillippo Ghisi, late of Milan, Italy. The house was a riot of yellow chrysanthemums, while the table presented a pleasing picture with its yellow and black decoration, suggestive of Halloween. Out of town guests were Miss Amelia Soto and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Upperson McKinley. It may be interesting to note that Mrs. Ghisi, a Los Angeles girl, is at present in Florence studying sculpture at the academy. Mrs. Ghisi sailed before the entrance of the United States in the world struggle, and has been unable to return. A recent letter states that in Florence she finds it difficult to procure food, but in Rome food conditions are about normal, except for the increase in prices.

HAPPENINGS IN STATE

RELIEF OF GENERAL MEAT SHORTAGE PLANNED BY CATTLEMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Relief of the general meat shortage which the country now is facing, particularly as it affects California, was being planned today at a meeting of the California Cattlemen's Association. The importance of increasing the meat supply not only for home consumption, but that American Sammies in France may have plenty of strength giving food, was brought directly home to the cattlemen who must produce the meat. Better breeding methods, conservation of ranges, building up stronger herds and prevention of thefts, were the chief means proposed of meeting the cattle shortage.

Californians, young and old, are going to Sunday school tomorrow. It is Go-to-Sunday School Sunday, proclaimed as such by Governor Stephenh at the request of the California Sunday School Association. In every church throughout the state there will be special Sunday school services to greet the special Sunday school throngs. The purpose is not merely to fill the Sunday schools for one day, but to help the people get the Sunday school habit. "The future of the state of California depends in a large measure upon the training and education of the young people," Governor Stephens wrote in his proclamation. "In that training and in the upbuilding of the characters of the youth no influence is more powerful than that of the Sunday schools. I am a firm believer in the efficacy of their work, and I feel that the people of this state should do everything to encourage and inspire those who are devoting themselves to the furtherance of Sunday school endeavor. I do, therefore, designate and set apart Sunday, November 4, as Go-to-Sunday school day, and urge all persons to attend the Sunday school of their choice on that day."

OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—"From free America to free Russia" is the inscription the label of each can of a million-pound shipment fom the Oakland Red Cross to Russia will bear, it was announced here today. It goes to relieve Russia's serious milk shortage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Eight hundred more Californians entrained for Camp Lewis, Washington, today, to become members of Uncle Sam's Liberty army. They came from 19 counties, mostly south of San Francisco. The number of men each county entrained today was: Los Angeles, 186; Madera, 17; Merced, 29; Ventura, 49; Santa Barbara, 60; San Luis Obispo, 17; Monterey, 39; San Benito, 14; Santa Cruz, 14; Santa Clara, 68; Inyo, 15; Fresno, 124; Kings, 13; Stanislaus, 58; Amador, 13; Placer, 25; Sierra, 4; Nevada, 15; Sacramento, 88. Total, 838. Tomorrow 366 will entrain from San Francisco.

HOME MISSIONS CONVENTION

Yesterday at the First Methodist hurch the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Pasadena district held an inspiring convention. Representatives were present from churches as far away as Ramona. The program began at 9:30 and continued through the morning and afternoon. The principal addresses of the morning were made by Mrs. M. M. Northrup, national organizer, and Rev. Bromley Oxman. Mrs. Northrup's addresses on the work of the national organization was vivid and interesting. Rev. Oxman outlined the work of the new Methodist center in Los Angeles, and stated that it was the intention to make the work, now centering in Newman church, a power among the laboring groups in Los Angeles, and a church which would eventually develop into a "church of all nations," ministering to numerous nationalities in Los Angeles.

Lunch was served at the noon hour by the ladies of the local church.

At the afternoon session addresses were made by the Rev. A. Ray Moore, superintendent of the Pasadena district, and the Rev. Alfred Inwood, superintendent of the Methodist Hospital, Los Angeles. Rev. Moore in his address especially emphasized the need of personal evangelism. Dr. Inwood thrilled his hearers with his story of the Methodist Hospital and its work.

The various phases of work being carried on by the Southern California organization were treated by speakers in short but stirring addresses. The attendance was large and the interest keen throughout.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1917

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE

A special children's matinee, beginning at 3:30 o'clock, will be given next Tuesday afternoon, November 6, at the Palace Grand Theatre by the pupils of the Pearl S. Keller School of Dramatic Art and Dancing. The entire performance given last June will be repeated for the benefit of the many children who did not have an opportunity of seeing it at that time. Mrs. Keller has been besieged with requests to repeat this charming entertainment.

More than fifty children, ranging in age from three to fifteen years, will take part in this performance. Dances of all kinds and description are to be given, including an Egyptian ballet, with ten little girls. Dorothy Hinckley will take the part of the Princess and Billy Justema as the Prince. Doris Cook will do her beautiful "Snow Dance," with scenic effect, and also a Russian dance. Merna Kahler and Dorothy Dutton will appear in "Cupid and the Butterfly," and two tiny tots, Elizabeth and Beatrice Turner, will do the St. Denis Mazurka. Merna Kahler and her brother, Merle, will do the "Pavlowa Gavotte," a cake walk and a Hawaiian dance, and Master Merle will also dance the globe trot with little Miss Dutton. Billy Justema and Florence Rattray will give an exhibition waltz. Shirley and Glen Hitchcock will give an imitation of the famous Dolly Sisters, and the ever popular fox trot will be danced by Gertrude and Jack Ewing. Norma Maxam, another tiny tot, will do a solo dance, The Jester, and little Mary Alice Ross will also contribute with a dance and recitation, "Don't You Want a Little Doggie?" Robert Lehman, n his imitation of Al Jolson, "I Can Dance with Everybody But My Wife," is a big hit. Arlynn Yeakel will dance on her toes and Harriet Cook will do the "Dance of the Daisies."

Fourteen of the smaller children, in an act entitled "A Saturday Morning at the Keller School," will execute a stately minuet, to be followed by the modern one step. The program will conclude wth a patriotic number, "Why Can't a Girl Be a Soldier?" led by Florence Rattray. They will be soldiers, sailors, Red Cross nurses, Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia. Judging from past successes, most of the mothers in Glendale as well as the children will be present to witness this exceedingly lovely exhibition of talented children and beautiful costumes so ably put on by Mrs. Keller.

THE HIGHER PATRIOTISM

(By Walt Le Noir Church.)

The death of young Harry Alfred Poste at the San Francisco Presidio and his burial with military honors is told elsewhere in this issue of the News. Friends in Los Angeles telegraphed their willingness to go to his mother, who was with him in his last hours. But she answered in substance: "Let us spend no unnecessary money because of our dead soldier boy, but give it all to the Red Cross, which would be his own wish, as it is mne. Living sick and wounded soldiers need all we can possibly do for them, and more."

Is not that the spirit of true patriotism? Flaunting banners, making loyal speeches and singing patriotic war songs are well enough, and have their place in the great work of winning the world war for democracy and universal peace. But it is peculiarly inspiring to see a bereaved mother making personal consolation for her irreparable loss a matter of minor importance—anxious that all possible help should go only where it will count most for our country's benefit in the hour of her greatest struggle and direst need.

HIGH SCHOOL P.-T. A. WILL MEET

The next meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the high school cafeteria on Monday, November 5, at 8 o'clock. The subject will be "Vocational Training," and will be handled by our own home teachers. Mr. Oliver and Mr. Richardson have the program in charge, after which an inspection of the shops will be made, a personally conducted tour whch should be of great interest not only to the parents but to all the citizens of Glendale. An effort is being made to reach every one who is interested in this work of the high school which means so much for the future efficiency of its young citizens, and notices of the meeting have been sent to all parents through the students. It is especially requested that the parents who have other subjects which they feel would be of interest for the association to study or investigate during the year bring these suggestions and submit them to the committees.

MILK FOR RUSSIAN BABIES

Owing to the great scarcity of wholesome milk in Russia, the American Red Cross has purchased a million pounds of condensed milk for the babies in that country. Shipment will be made immediately. The money for this milk was appropriated on the receipt of urgent cables from William B. Thompson, chairman of the Red Cross commission to Russia, and Dr. Frank Billings of Chicago.

Reports from the American Red Cross commission to Russia have stated that nothing could be more heartening to many of the Russian people at the present time than providing nourishment for their babies. Another million pounds, therefore, is to be shipped next month. It is probable that further supplies will be made, to the limit of transportation facilities. In subsequent shipments each can of condensed milk will bear a label in Russian reading, "From free America to free Russia."

The original purchase was made through the Belgian relief commission. Special attention was given to obtaining milk which would retain its nutritive value under the frigid temperatures of the Russian climate.

The Russian government has arranged to release cars from war service to carry this milk to distributing centers as soon as the shipment shall arrive at the boundary of Russia.

Mr. Goodthing—How does your sister like the engagement ring I gave her, Bobby?

Her Young Brother—Well, it's a little too small; she has an awful hard time getting it off when the other fellows call.

tional army here today are filling in their applications for admission to the officers' training camp, opening January 5. Six hundred men will go through an intensive course of training and will be given commissions for the national army. The national army is short of commissioned men. This shortage is particularly noticeable here, where some companies of 250 men have only a second lieutenant to command them.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—"All Hail!"—California's anthem, beloved to every undergraduate and alumnus of the university—pealed out from the Sather chimes at the Campanile this afternoon, the first time the chimes have been rung. "All Hail!" was followed by the rollicking "Golden Bear," all in honor of the California-Washington football game on California field. George Clark, '18, presided as chime master. From today on, the chimes, given to the university by Mrs. Sather, will play regularly each day. The bells were cast in England.

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 3.—Floyd Garner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garner of Santa Rosa, witnessed the sinking of the American transport Antilles, with the loss of 67 lives, according to a letter received by his parents here today. "The scene was too awful to describe," he wrote, "and the greatest tragedy I ever witnessed or want to witness." Garner was a member of the crew of an American warship in the Antilles convoy.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—"Soldiers are now the easiest men to talk to about the Man who gave life that others might live, for they are themselves giving their lives in that way," declared Charles E. Whitehair, international Y. M. C. A. worker, who has just returned from a tour of the European battle fronts, including the Russian front. "These men are ready to receive the story of Christ," he added. Whitehair declares the Russian soldiers are just learning what the Y. M. C. A. is, and that it is their greatest aid in rebuilding the shattered morale of the Slavic forces. "Russia has lost more men killed, wounded and missing than all the allies together," he declared. "The multitudes in the trenches, the multitudes in the fields, the multitudes in the cemeteries—all these are in the struggle for God. The comforts and help the Y. M. C. A. can give these men do wonders in strengthening their fighting spirit."

OAKLAND, Nov. 3.—Girls of the graduating class of the Oakland high school can have expensive graduation dresses if they want to. Yes, they can go as far as they like. But if they do, and their likes run over $3 a dress, they can not sit on the platform at the graduation exercises. At a recent meeting of the Oakland school board it was voted that a dress with $3 worth of goods in it should be the standard for graduation. The girls will make the dresses themselves.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—At last the meek and lowly penny is coming into its own. Once it was spurned or put into baby's bank. Now not only do babies cry for it; business men, bankers and housewives howl for it. Their howls have awakened Uncle Sam's mints. It is found more pennies are needed, and it is expected before long they will be forthcoming. The war did it. War taxes have made 10-cent cigarettes 13 cents and 15-cent theater tickets 16 cents. The result is that theaters, cigar men and scores of others who cater to the public are demanding pennies that they may make change. The demand is unprecedented, but as yet there is no indication that the shortage will increase the value.

OROVILLE, Nov. 3.—Harvesting of the half million dollar olive crop of the Oroville section started this week with indications for a satisfactory return. Growers report conditions peculiar this season, for, while usually a shortage of small olives is considered good, this year high prices for oil made the small sizes valuable, but there is a shortage of them, the crop being chiefly large, toothsome ones, which are considered most choice. Packers have been buying the output at top prices ranging as high as $125 for the run of the orchard, and with no frost protection clauses in the contract.

CHICO, Nov. 3.—California schools are being rapidly stripped of their male teachers. The demand far exceeds the supply, and the prospects for relief in the future are not bright. That is the statement of E. I. Miller, vice president of the Chico Normal School, who points out that while calls from all parts of the state, and even from outside the state, are coming in constantly for male teachers, there are none to be found, and in the entire student body of the Chico Normal School there are but 15 men as prospects for meeting future demands.

GET ON YULETIDE FUND HONOR ROLL

The Yuletide celebration offers an opportunity to show our soldier and sailor boys that there is something substantial back of your cheers for them as they march down the streets on parade. Show that you are among those loyal Americans who appreciate the sacrifice of the men who are ready to lay down their lives for you. Contribute to the national defenders' Christmas fund.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION WORK IN GLENDALE

Teachers of secondary and elementary schools, together with university students of Glendale and vicinity, will be interested in knowing that a class in social education will be organized at the Third street intermediate school at 7 o'clock next Tuesday evening. The course will consist of lectures and discussions on how the schools of today may become more vital forces for social progress, and how, through a recognition of their broader social relationships and their internal social character, they may become more efficient agencies of instruction. Full university credit will be given for the work taken.

Personals

Mrs. Walter Stamps, of 1304 Lomita avenue, is quite ill with tonsilitis.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Poole, 1106 Fairview avenue, have named their infant daughter, born October 13, Jane Poole.

Mrs. James Braly and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Braly, of Berkeley, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hyde Braly, 205 North Brand boulevard.

Mrs. A. H. Brown of Fullerton spent Thursday and Friday in Glendale visiting her mother, Mrs. E. A. Case, of 111 South Kenwood, and her sister, Mrs. Ernest E. Osgood, 221 North Louise.

Have you met Dr. Joseph Marple of Tropico? He is the best tenor singer in Southern California. Meet him Saturday evening at the high school with the community singers and hear his wonderful voice in solos.

Mrs. C. M. Connor of Boston came today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert L. Dell, of Arden avenue. Mrs. Connor, who is an experienced "globe trotter," happens never before to have visited the coast. She expects to spend the winter in Glendale.

Mrs. G. W. Henderson, of 611 North Louise, gave an informal little tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Bunker, of Palm Springs, who is spending the week with her. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thompson have returned from their wedding journey and are at their home, 814 Camden Drive, Beverly Hills. They will be at home to their friends after November 6. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Martha Porter of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Price today gave up their residence at 466 West Fifth street, and Mrs. Price has left for San Gabriel, where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Lopez. Mr. Price will remain in Glendale for about a week, and later expects to go to Arizona, where Mrs. Price will join him.

Mrs. C. M. Mosier returned on Thursday from Ocean Park, where she has been the guest since Sunday of Mrs. Evelyn Boden. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Boden was hostess to a large box party of 24 ladies, who enjoyed the Halloween festivities at the Venice pavilion and afterwards were entertained at supper at Mrs. Boden's beautiful home.

Miss Helen Gansert will sing with the community singers at the high school Saturday evening. Miss Helen has a beautiful voice. Come and hear her and the great chorus of Tropico and Glendale singers. You are invited to sing in this chorus. Come, help sing "America," "Old Folks at Home" and "The Star Spangled Banner." You need us and we need you. Come.

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Darnley, of 625 North Louise street, with their baby daughter and small son, Harden, Jr., returned on Sunday after a very pleasant week spent in visiting relatives at various points farther north. At Santa Barbara they stopped with Mr. Darnley's mother, Mrs. Jessie Crockford, and in San Francisco with his sister, Mrs. Grace Westcott. They also visited Mrs. Darnley's sister, Mrs. Roy Kimball, in Redding.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pennel entertained relatives from Pasadena at their home, 1232 Arden, on Wednesday. Mrs. Pennel motored over in the morning from Glendale to Pasadena and brought her guests back with her—Mr. Pennel's mother, Mrs. W. M. Pennel; his sister, Mrs. M. E. Sayre, and Mrs. J. W. Pennel. In the evening the husbands drove over, all having dinner together, after which the Pasadena guests returned to their homes.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. H. H. Dreyer, of 808 West Fifth street, entertained the ladies of the Pythian Sisters' Carnation Thimble Club at her home. The afternoon was spent in needlework, the special work of the day being the finishing of three quilts for the orphans' home at Gilroy. The ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon and Mrs. Dreyer served a delicious little lunch at her beautifully decorated dining room table. A few Halloween games and contests were enjoyed, especially the feat of pinning on the cat's tail.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bailey of Beaumont spent the last week with Mrs. R. C. Newton at her home, 308 Belmont. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey came down in their new car from their fruit ranch, where they have been staying for the past few months, loaded down wth all varieties of fruit, not to menton tomatoes in quantities, both ripe and green. They left Mrs. Newton supplied for some time with apples, pears and dried apples, even after the delicious peaches were gone. They expect to make the trip often, and will perhaps plan a longer visit to Glendale during the winter. They returned on Friday.

SAVE US

—from ourselves! One of the leading financial Journals of London recently said:

—"When you put money into the hands of a first-class Life Company it is safe. Neither is it shut up as some people imagine—it comes out the moment when it is due to come out and nothing will stop it. An insurance company is the best savings bank in the world. It saves your savings from yourself, and that is the greatest danger, usually, that they run."

—The experience of "The Provident" is that 90 per cent. of the endowments which they pay represents money which, otherwise, would never have been saved! And of course the death claims show an enormous saving.

W. B. Kirk

Protector of Homes

Los Angeles and Glendale.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Hieronymous of 1008½ West Broadway, were in receipt on Friday of a message telling of the death on Tuesday at the Presidio hospital in San Francisco of their nephew, Harry Alfred Poste, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Poste of Los Angeles. Mr. W. W. Poste was for some time connected with the People's Store in Glendale. The boy's death was due to pneumonia, and came after a three days' illness. He was a member of the militia and was 18 years old. He had always enjoyed perfect health. He leaves, besides his parents, a brother, Freeman, who has the record of having been the youngest sergeant in his service. He enlisted in the navy several years ago and now holds the position of first lieutenant and is in the wireless service at Cape Haitien, Haiti. Mrs. Poste, who was with her son at his death, reports that 500 of the boys are now in the hospital at the San Francisco Presidio.

Mrs. M. B. Harris, of 225 North Louise, gave a lovely little party on Halloween for four of the tiny tots of her neighborhood. The little ones were Little Miss Vera Lockwood and small Masters Edward Geissler, Carlton Osgood and Earl Henry, ranging from three to six years of age. The guests, who came at 6:45, were each given a tall, pointed Halloween hat to start off the festivities, with a cunning little paper apron and a pennant weirdly decorated with witches and cats. They marched proudly about, and were led to a table where refreshments were served in the light of tiny pumpkin lanterns at each place and a fine big one in the middle, also ornamented with a clown's paper hat. Little hobgoblin figures at each place were given as favors.

DINING TABLES AND CHAIRS. 417 BRAND BLVD.

First Lieut. Reginald E. Whitaker, of Company E, 117th regiment of the 42d division, U. S. A., known as "The Rainbow" division, has returned to his home, 1460 West Colorado, having been placed on the inactive list for the present because of physical disability.

Rev. Clifford A. Cole returned today from the East, where he attended the international convention of the Christian churches held at Kansas City, Mo. He reports it to have been the best convention in the history of this religious body in every particular. About 15,000 representatives were in attendance. Mr. Cole made visits in St. Louis and at Wichita.

REMEMBER THE BOYS

Have you visited the headquarters of the National Defenders' Yuletide Committee, at 1107 West Broadway? If not, do so at once. Remember, this is the first Christmas away from home for many of our soldier and sailor lads. Will it be a sad or happy one? That depends on you? We have nine or ten thousand boys from Southern California under the colors, who must be remembered. Let us do our share. One dollar puts you on the honor roll; two dollars buys a gift box. A nickel will help.

MRS. STEPHEN C. PACKER,
Publicity Chairman.

DORIS COOK'S BIRTHDAY

On Wednesday evening, October 31, little Doris Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris M. Cook, 219 South Brand boulevard, was given a wonderfully beautiful brithday party, the fairies themselves, who must be especially interesting in a little girl having Halloween for a birthday, seeming to use their magic in transforming the whole house and grounds into a veritable fairyland.

Aladdin touched hs magic lamp and transported 14 little friends into Doris Cook's birthday kingdom. The house was transformed into a realm for frolicking festivities, the whole atmosphere alive with peering gnomes and witches from the goblin world. Every moment held a breathless surprise until the fortunate little guests felt they were drinking in the witcheries of a spirit country. One vista showed a cornfield with black oats blinking through the stalks, the moon casting his magic spell over the scene. Another glimpse found the eager children sitting around the old witch, who was telling the most wonderful fortunes, passing out favors that marvel all description.

When the reveling was at its height, with the laughter of happy voices echoing through Fair Doris' kingdom, a ghost flitted into the mist, scattering the dancing feet, causing even the glimmering lights to fade with fright. Following this apparition—to bring back color to rosy cheeks and music and laughter again—Hokey Pokus walked in through the door, so tall he almost touched the ceiling with his corn hair. All the children clung to him while he gave out his store of vari-colored balloons. Then, with a whiff, he, too, was gone, while the witch also flew away on her broom.

By this time all little mouths were open for the next touch of Aladdin's magic lamp. Putting on masks until every child resembled a gnome or elf himself, they set forth with horns and bells to scare out the little town, and when they returned a few flickering lights showed where magic had spread itself in a sylvan bower of green, a table arrayed with all the most bewitching, enticing things mind and heart could conceive. The moon was long on the wane before the birthday guests could betake themselves from feasting and Doris' wonderful magic kingdom.

The guests were: Little Misses Dorothy Dutton, Shirley and Glen Hitchcock, Arlynn Yeakel, Merna Kahler and Florence Rattray, and Masters Bobby Turnbull, Merle Kahler, Kenneth Smith, Glen Roberts, Robert and Laurence Lehman and Billy Justema.

SPECIAL EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Last Wednesday evening the Baptist church laid plans for the further conserving of the results of the Sunday campaign by a series of evangelistic meetings to begin the last Sunday in November. The pastor will be aided by Pastor W. Earle Smith, a noted evangelist and singer, who has recently settled as pastor of the South Park Baptist church, Los Angeles. In the meantime a special invitation is given by the Baptist people to the Sunday trail hitters to be present next Sunday, when plans will be perfected for carrying on and making permanent the evangelistic work.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Chorus of fifty voces. Hear it Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This chorus will lead the congregational singing and will also render two great numbers, "From Every Stormy Wind" and "Crown Him King of Kings." The Misses Margaret Lusby and Eva Wede will sing "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

The pastor will speak on "America—Over or Under?" Would universal military training avail anything? Are you proud of Glendale's ineffectives? Hear this message.

At the morning church hour the pastor will speak on "Minorities and Their Glory." The choir will sing "The Morning Light Is Breaking" and "I Sought the Lord."

This is Go to Sunday School Day and also Go to Church Day. Great rally at the Bible school, 9:30 a. m. Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

This is Back to Church Sunday, as well as Go to Sunday School Day. We are planning for special programs for both services. Something for each and every one, young and old. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good." The pastor at 11 o'clock will bring a timely message, "The Bible to the Front." In the evening Mr. Harry Pasemann, lay reader of this congregation, will speak. His message has some true meat of the living word of God, and those who desire to be benefited by a religious talk to a layman will not be disappointed. The "Friendly Church" urgently invites you.

NEW THOUGHT

Masonic Temple, 532 South Brand boulevard.

Sunday school at 10 o'clock, as usual.

There will be no morning platform service during the month of November.

The evening service will be conducted with Dr. Pfeiffer in charge. Dr. Pfeiffer says: "My idea of a Sunday service is one in which we may gain strength and inspiration, so the evening service will be devotional and spiritual, while the Wednesday meeting will be devoted to discussing the underlying principles of liberal thought."

The Bible class this coming week will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carmack, 715 North Central avenue, Tropico.

NO TOBACCO FOR SOLDIERS

Mrs. J. F. Chandler was the hostess to the Glendale W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon at her home, 349 West Fifth street. The time was spent in preparing fillings for ambulance pillows. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"To Mr. Mattison B. Jones, Member of the Committee of Southern California Christmas Boxes for the Soldiers and Sailors—Inasmuch as science has declared that the use of narcotics in any form is pernicious and detrimental to the efficiency of the user thereof, and as our army and navy are to be kept at the highest state of efficiency for the great work before them, and believing that our boys who have not learned to smoke and chew should not have the temptation unnecessarily presented to them by those wishing their best welfare; therefore we of the Glendale Women's Christian Temperance Union earnestly request the committee on Christmas boxes for soldiers and sailors to use its utmost influence to prevent the placing of pipes, tobacco and cigarettes in the Christmas boxes, but, rather, use the space and money for something beneficial. Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, President; Mrs. Mary L. Moore, Vice President; Mrs. R. W. Mottern, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Louise Morton, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Nannie Palmer, Treasurer."

The Presbyterian Ministers' Association of Washington, D. C., and vicinity, at a recent meeting issued a protest which the secretary was instructed to send to both houses of congress. The protest is against the proposal to thrust tobacco on every soldier as a part of his ration. It further states: "We respectfully protest against the purchase of tobacco for soldiers with Red Cross funds, much of it contributed by churches with no intimation it is to be so used. We have no thought of forbidding soldiers to use tobacco, but believe no sanction should be given to the use of this harmful narcotic by having it furnished by the government as part of its ration, or presented as a charity, which would naturally lead some to use it who would never have done so without special inducements. We also respectfully suggest to the Red Cross management that an organization so closely related to the churches in its work should not allow its name to be used to sanction Sunday entertainments that violate the spirit, if not the letter, of American Sabbath laws under the guise of charity."

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS

To All Red Cross Chapters in the Pacific Division:

The American Library Association is now conducting a campaign for the collection of funds to be used for the erection of library building at each of the camps and cantonments in this country and for the purchase of books which will be required in addition to those old books which will be collected by all of the public libraries throughout the country.

I am advising the chapters of this fact, so that in case you should have any inquiries as to what use to make of old books by people anxious to donate them for the use of our soldiers and sailors, it would be proper to suggest that the books be turned in to the nearest public library, as the libraries have received instructions from the American Library Association as to just what to do with such books.

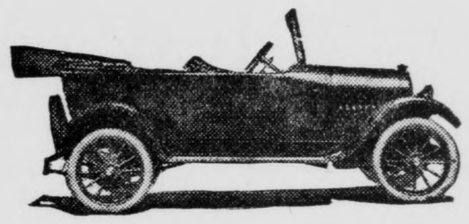
MAXWELL

Most Miles per Gallon — Most Miles on Tires



$745

F. O. B. DETROIT

There are visions—now and then—in business and industry.

The Maxwell motor car is a wonderful vision that has been made real.

The fixed purpose of the Maxwell builders was in the beginning, and is now, to produce a car which would be, in the highest sense, efficient, durable, economical, comfortable and standard in equipment.

Many years experience in production on a vast scale has taught the Maxwell manufacturers two things.

One is that such a car as they have always made their aim—a car in which efficiency, durability, economy, comfort, beauty and standard equipment are all present—cannot be built for less than $745 with materials at their present prices.

The other lesson is that, for more than $745, they could not give you anything more than the Maxwell now has—except greater size or luxuries, pure and simple.

In other words they are convinced—and they have convinced us—that they have found the great MIDDLE LINE where you get dollar for dollar in ABSOLUTE VALUE.

SAVE SOME MONEY

Every one should try to live within his income and also to put away a little of his salary for use on a stormy day. Don't watch the other fellow and learn how much he is spending; watch yourself and ascertain where you can benefit. It is time enough to increase your living expenes when your salary is advanced, when it is also time to add to your bank account.
